Resolved, also, That the Comptroller he, and he is hereby, requested to furnish this board his opinion upon the same subject, with a view of skillsiting to the Common Council the reason of his discrimination between the right to collect market fees and the right to collect wharfare upon our public piers—why the one should be sold at auction, and the other reserved to be collected by the agents of the corporation. PROFOSED USE OF SITEM TO WORK FIRE ENGINES.

The Chief Engineer of the Fire Department, in answer to a resolution of the Board, suggesting the expediency of using steam power to work engines in extinguishing dress of the city of New York, sent in a reportisating that he entertains favorable views as to the propriety of introducing steam power to work fire engines.

One is now used in Cincinnati, weighing not more than four or five tons. One of this weight could be drawn quite rapidly by four horses, but as considerable difficulty is experienced in getting the engines through the streets when a deep anow has fallen, much mose was expected in doubling the weight of them; he was under the impression that the weight could be still further reduced, and that one could be built of sufficient power much lighter. He proposed that a premium of a moderate sum be offered for the most approved plans and specifications for builting a steam fire engine. He suggests the organization of a company of ten or fifteen men to each engine. The engineers to have exclusive charge of the machinery. After suggesting the different duties of the various officers, the Chief Engineer stated the necessity of adopting some plan to give a sufficient supply of water, as at present the quantity is inadequate. If nothing is to be done at the High Bridge for some time to come, let some other plan be adopted. A most excellent one is now before their honorable body, proposed by Alderman Blunt, viz. to make arrangements with the various ferry companies to arrange facilities on their boats for throwing river water. The expense could not be very great compared with the advantages to be gained thereby. The advantage to the shipping in the harbor would be almost incalculable in case of their taking fire, either in the stream or at the docks, as they could be removed from the vicinity of other shipping without being cast adrift beyond the hope of being saved, as the ferry boat, by her propelling pow

The following resolution was offered by Alderman Morr:

That, in the opinion of this Board, it would be best to carry out the wishes of this community, and leage the exercise of legislative power less trammeled in the Board of Aldermen, to repeal the fourth section of the amended charter, or so much thereof as would make said section conform to the constitution of the United States. And also so much of the twelfth and fifteenth sections of said charter as require all wesk to be done, and all supplies to be furnished, involving an expenditure of more than two hundred and fifty dollars, to be by contract, as provided in said sections, be repealed, or so modified as to leave such matters to the discretion and direction of the Common Council.

having so much of the amended charter of 1849 as directs the several heads of the Executive departments of the city government, elected by the people, be so modified as to have said heads of said departments appointed by the Mayor and confirmed by the Board of Aldermen.
Alderman Canvacw moved to lay it upon the table.
Alderman Loan said that if the resolution passed, it would be by such a feeble majority that the Legislature would not act on it. The Board of Councilmen would not pass it. The motion to lay on the table was lost.

would be by such a feeble majority that the Legislature would not pass it. The motion to lay on the table was lost.

The Alderman of the Twelfth said that they were not sent there to amend charters, but to act under that which was made by the people. The resolution on being put, was lost by a vote of ten to eleven.

IMMITATION OF ORATORICAL DEPLAYS.

Alderman Woorhis moved a resolution to the effect that no member of the Board should speak more than iffteen minutes at a time.

Alderman Morr called for the ayes and noes, and on a division, the sensble motion of Alderman Voorhis was adopted by a vote of fifteen to six.

THE PUBLIC MARKETS.

On the resolution to be seen in our official reports, respecting the sale of the public markets being offered, Alderman Herrick said that the market property was estimated in 1851 at a valuation of $1,109,000. It is probably now worth, or would be in private hands, two millions of dellars, and would sell any day at auction for a million aud a half. The revenue paid into the treasury from the markets, in the year ending the 31st July last was $68,772.16 from which deduct the expenses of cleaning markets, abaries of clerks and lighting, in round numbers, last year, was $17,000, and we have then left, as the actual income of property, worth a million and a half of dellars, a sum less than $42,000, about two and a half per cent upon the valuation—very little more than would have been collected in taxes if the property had been in the hands of private individuals. Now, since it is apparent that the city could lay in the Sinking Funda million and a half of dellars, a sum less than $42,000, about two and a half per cent upon the valuation—very little more than would have been collected in taxes if the property had been in the hands of private individuals. Now, since it is apparent that the city could lay in the Sinking Funda million and a half often of the Reform Board—whether the markets should not be sold, and marketing lee left, like all other business, to private enterprize.

Proceedings in the Board of Councilmen.

Proceedings in the Board of Councilmen.

(Our Special Report.)

The minutes of the last meeting being read.

Mr. Jackson (hard) rose and said that before the vote on the adoption of the minutes as read, he moved to strike out the last clause, where it said the President appointed a reader. He made his motion with due regard to the Chair, but the rules of the Board could not in his opinion, be thus Infringed.

Mr. KENNEUN, in voting against the approval of the minutes, said that he did so feeling that it was his bounden duty not to vote for any measure that was not in accordance with their rules of order. However great a respect he had for the President, he felt that the appointment of a reader by the Chair, without his being elected by bellot, was an act that did not lay in his power Although the appointment of a reader in the other Boar had been made by the President of the Board of Aldermen it was not proper for them to follow that Board's be example.

it was not proper for them to follow that Board's bad example.

The PRENDENT of the Board then rose, and said that he had given notice at a former meeting that he would appoint a reader. The same course had been pursued by the President of the other Board. If the Board would not appoint the reader, then he would pay for one out of his own pocket.

Mr. Jackson did not suppose that the citizens of New York or the members of the Board wanted the President to pay for the reader out of his own pocket. All he wanted was to have the reader elected according to the thirty-third rule, which says that all officers of the Board shall be elected by ballot, and not by the appointment of an individual. The last night that the Board met, he was endeavored to be choked off by the President, who would give him no satisfactory answer to his questions respecting the appointment of the said reader. In view of these facts, he wished the question to be put.

The question on striking out was then put and carried.

Mr. FRY offered the following resolution, which created a lively debate:—

"Bready of That the Counsel to the Cornovation be, and

Mr. Fay offered the following resolution, which created a lively debate:—

"Resolved, That the Counsel to the Corporation be, and he is hereby directed to make an application on behalf of the corporation of the city for the passage of a law authorizing the Mayor, Aldermen and Commonalty of the city of New York to raise $40,000 by loan, and fund the same, for the completion of the south wing of the workhouse on Blackwell's Island."

Mr. KENNEN, (reformer.) hoped the resolution would be referred to the Committee on Finance. A committee of the Board of Ten Governors he understood were present there that evening to lobby the thing through. Of all the institutions in this city he thought Blackwell's Island required no further appropriations, for those institutions had always received all the necessary funds to defray their expenses. If the architect of the building on Blackwell's Island had made some blunder, as he believed he had, they were not to be accountable for it, and the city should should not be taxed by an additional loan of $40,000 for any deficiency that might occur through his negligence. The architect had also made a great blunder in constructing the immense building at Washington, known as the Smithonian Institute, which was twice too large for the purposes for which it was originally designed. This fact alone would be a good reason for the deficiency in the amounts required to carry on the building of the Workhouse on Blackwell's Island. In view of those facts, therefore, he wished the resolution would be referred to a committee for investigrtion.

resolution would be referred to a committee for investigation.

Mr. Fav. (whis)—I did not like to interrupt the gentleman of the Ninth, although he was, no doubt, out of order, because I wished to say a few words in reply to the unfounded allegations he has made against the architect of the building. Now, the architect that he alludes to, is a man well experienced in his profession, and every way capable to construct the Workhouse on Blackwell's labind. I was requested by a majority of the committee of the Board of Ten Governors to offer the resolution, and it was at their instance I drew it up. it is merely asking the Counsel to the Corporation to draft a resolution at thorizing the Legislature to make an appropriation of $40,000 for the completion of a portion of this useful project. It does not state that the Legislature must make the requisite appropriation. That body can pass the bill or reject it, just as they see fit. There is no need of referring it, as it does not provide for a special committee to lobby it at Albany, as the gentleman of the Ninth did a bill not very long ago. There is no haste as he allegos, none, only that unless it is adopted to-night, it cannot be acted upon at all perhaps, for the Legislature this season. I hope, therefore, that it will not be referred. Want of time precludes other mode of action than that of adoption at the hands of the gentlemen of the Board.

Mr. Hopenseon (whig)—I am totally opposed to the reference of the resolution to the Committee on Finance. It might as well be referred to the Committee on Greenwood Cemetery for that matter, for it was well known the Committee on Finance would not make a report in time for the bill to pass the Legislature this season. If it should be referred at all it should be, in my opinion, to a committee that would make some report upon it speedily. For my part, I think its reference to the Committee on Greenwood Cemetery for that matter, for it was well known the Committee on Finance have all well and the proper disposition of that p lature certain sums could be appropriated for certain purposes. There was no necessity for petitioning the Legislature for the money; the appropriation could be made from the Board of Councilmen. If the resolution was referred, he had no doubt but what there would be no necessity for an appropriation from the Legislature, for they could do it themselves. If there is any deficiency, and it is necessary for the Legislature to make an appropriation, why let us inquire into the matter before we come to any conclusion. I have no objection that the resolution should be referred to any other committee than the Finance one. Let it be referred to the Committee on Public Buildings on Blackwell's and Randall's Islands.

Mr. North (free soil reformer)—This is certainly an important subject that has come up before us, and, in my opinion, we ought to investigate the matter before we pass upon it.

Mr. Reed, (whig)—I am always in favor of reference, but in the present case I think the resolution should be adopted to-night.

Mr. Reed. (whig)—I am always in favor of reference, but in the present case I think the resolution should be adopted to-night.

Mr. TUTTIE, (hard reformer)—It is an important matter and should be investigated.

Mr. COOPER, (soft reformer.) hoped it would be referred to the Committee on Public Buildings on Blackwell's and Randall's islands. It was a very important matter, involving the expenditure of a large sum of money, and should be duly investigated.

Mr. CONNOVER, (reform whig)—It is well known that this is the last night but one of our session, therefore the necessity of immediate action.

The question on reference to the Committee on Finance was then put and lost.

The question on the adoption of the resolution was then put and adopted, by more than a two third vote.

The Board then went into Committee of the Whole on the adoption of all reports where the expenditure of money was required.

Coroners' Inquests.

Sudden Draffs—Found Drad in his room at French's Hotel.—Coroner O'Donnell was called yesterday to hold an inquest on the body of Henry R. Lawrence, a lodger at French's Hotel, who was found yesterday morning dead in his room. It seems the deceased arrived in this city from Columbia county, on Monday last, and put up at French's Hotel; he was in ill health on that evening, and at an early hour requested a waiter to show him to his room, which was accordingly done. He locked the door, and nothing more was heard of him until yesterday morning, when the clerks of the hotel were informed by the chambermaid that one of the rooms had been locked during the day previous. The door was then forced open and Mr. Lawrence was discovered dead. From the position of the body it is supposed he dropped dead while underessing himself. The deceased had $006 in a wallet, under the pillow. He was a native of this State, and about twenty six years of age, and had apparently come to this city to purchase goods. From evidence of the physician who nade a post mortim examination on the body, it was evident that the cause of death was consumption, and a verdict to that effect was rendered. Coroner O'Donnell took charge of the money and effects of the deceased, and despatched word to the friends of the deceased, announcing to them the melancholy information.

SEIZURE OF TWO THOUSAND Dellars of Spunious Mosey at Priysburg.—We mentioned in our paper, a few days since, the fact of the arrest of two counterfeiters, named Leonard and Williams. They were taken to Cleveland, there to await their trial, on a charge of uttering and passing counterfeit money. The baggage of the prisoners was not found until yesterday, when the Hague, of Alderman Steel's independent police, found a carpet bag belonging to Leonard at the Monongahela House. The carpet bag contained $1,360 in twenties altered from ones, on the Commercial Bank of Glenn's Falls, New York, is twenties altered from ones; also altered notes of the same lenomination on the Public Stock Bank, at Newport, Ekode Island, and on the Bank of Albany, New York. All these notes were altered from ones, and in a very ingenious and artistic manner. The twenties on the Rensscaer County Bank (Lausingburg, New York,) are very good, and well calculated to decive. There were also in the carpet bag notes of the denomination of $1.25, on the Weyboset Bank, Providence, Rhode Island. These notes were altered from bills of the same denomination on a broken bank. The notes Wère found in the carpet bag of Leonard, (alias Siark.) together with clothing, a considerable amount of jewelry, and a daguerreotype of Leonard's very handmone phiz. These articles, and the counterfeit money, will be sent to Cleveland, and there produced as evidence against Leonard on his trial. The altered twenties are worth one dollar each, on presentation at the bank from which they were issued. Leonard, in coming to this city, passed a twenty on the Glenn's Fulls Bank on Mr. Sourbeck, of the Railroad Hotel, at Alliance. When he was taken back to Cleveland he remitted the amount to Mr. S. in good money.—Pittsburg Post, Marik 21. SEIZURE OF TWO THOUSAND DOLLARS OF SPU

Another Visit to the Spirits.

CURIOUS INFORMATION FROM THE SPIRITUAL WORLD
—HOW C.RSAB, WELLINGTON, NAPOLEON AND BENJAMIN PRANKLIN, ARE EMPLOYED, ETC., ETC. BENJAMIN PRANKLIN, ARE MEPLOYED, ETC., ETC.
We published, a few days ago, an account of the visit of one of our reporters to Miss Catherine Fox, spiritual medium, who has just arrived in this city from Washington, where she has produced quite a sensation among the politicians and statesmen. As that account was of a rather unfavorable character to the cause of spiritualism, and as we desired to give them one more opportunity, we and as we desired to give them one more opportunity, we despatched another of our attachés te the residence of Miss F., who gives the following report of his communications with the spirits. It will be seen, however, that his investigations have been attended with still more unsatisfactory results, and that in relation to the important subjects upon which he interrogated them he could not obtain any reliable information.

Miss Fox's room, and as our "knock" was soon responded to by some one on the other side of it, we entered a few to by some one on the other side of it, we entered a few moments after. We were disappointed, however, on entering, to find that the fair medium was not in; but as we were informed by her mother, a portly looking and matronly old lady, that she would not be long absent, we concluded to await her return. At the end of a very interesting conversation about that inexhaustible topic the weather—in the course of which many sage remarks were made, Miss F. made her appearance. We recognized her at once as the youngest of the three sisters who, about four years ago, "gave" spiritual manifestations at the Howard House, in Broadway. She is, it is true, somewhat changed in her appearance, but her manners, which are quiet and easy, are the same as when we first saw her. If there is indeed any one feature in her demeanor which is remarkably prominent, it is her self-possession. Whether the spirits answer correctly or otherwise, she is never disconcerted, and is always ready with some explanation. She does not pretend to have any control over them, and admits that they sometimes give wrong replies. It is now mearly six years, she informed us, since she became a medium, and four since she first made her appearance before the public. In that time she has travelled over a considerable portion of the United States and made a host of converts to spiritualism, among whom are several distinguished poli-ticians and statesmen at Washington. During her stay in that city her rooms were crowded with Congressmen, august Senators, grave lawyers and judges, all eager to communicate with the spiritual world.

The first indications which the Fox family had from the spirits of their intention to make mediums of them, were, according to Miss Catherine's account, of a very remarkable and alarming character. At night they felt cold bands passing over their persons, the bed clothes would be dragged off the bed, the lights extinguished and various articles of furniture thrown about the room Then they would hear a rapid succession of knocks, vary. ing in sound, sometimes appearing to come from the wall, and at other times from the doors. It was a con-siderable time, however, before they could sufficiently conquer their fears to investigate the matter, and discover what their spiritual visiters meant by such unruly conduct. Their friends were called in, and by their as-wall, and at other times from the doors. It was a 0.5 solication then, however, before they could sufficiently conquer their fears to lavestigate the matter, and discover what their spiritual visiters meant by such nursely conduct. Their friends were called in, and by their assistance they succeeded in inventing a plan by which they could communicate with them. Words and whole sentences were spieled out by the alphabet—a rather tedious mode it must be acknowledged, and not very recitable to the ingenuity of the spirits. There has been no improvement on this method since, and those who would receive communications from the other world will require more than an ordinary degree of patience to keep their temper.

From this brief explanation our readers will perceive that a couple of hours conversation in this style is quite a serious matter. Tedious, however, as it is, Mas Fox rever exhibits any signs of impatience, but repeats over the alphabet perhaps for the thousandth time in the day, with a perseverance worthy of a better canse. On the occasion of our visit, she seated herself on the sofa before a moderac isseld able, and we took a chair on the other side. Just as Cosar was about replying by the alphabet, raps were heard at the door, and two ladies entered immediately after. The poodle jumped down from the sefa, showed his teeth; but a few caresses from the servant mollified him, and he resumed his seat beside his mistress. The ladies said they had lost some valuable articles, and desired to know if the spirits could tell who had stolen them, or where they were to be found. They appeared to have an idea that there was a detective force in the spirit world, and were considerably dis appointed when the medium informed them that they might not be able to give her the correct information. This concluded our inquiries, and we shortly after left. with our belief in the character of spiritual manifesta-tions more fully confirmed by our visit to Miss Fox. To all, however, who desire to visit this young lady, we must say that they will find her very affable, and that she gives every opportunity to visiters to prosecute their investigations. If they do not succeed in getting correct answers, the spirits, we suppose, are to blame, for it would be hard to hold her accountable for their ignorance. From the brief acquaintance we have had with them we are of the opinion that we are far ahead of them in our knowledge of things in general.
